Manish Goyal, co-founder of Hamoni Golf Camp, is a professional golfer with over a decade of experience on the PGTI and international tours, including the Asian Tour, ADT, and Mena Golf Tour. Trained by renowned coaches like Claude Harmon III and Justin Parsons at the Butch Harmon Academy in Dubai, Manish is also an accomplished triathlete who has completed two Ironman competitions. A pioneer on the PGTI, he integrates an athletic approach into his training. Manish holds certifications from the Titleist Performance Institute (Level I) and is a PEAK Certified Foresight GC Technologist. His extensive experience helps him offer a comprehensive approach to golf, focusing on course management, short game skills, and the mental aspects of the sport.

John Volz, a Class 'A' member of the United States Professional Golfers' Association since 1995, honed his teaching skills under Golf Emeritus Sam Snead and US Senior Tour player Bert Yancey at Meadowood Golf and Tennis Club in Florida. Moving to India in 1997, he served as the Director of Golf at the Nicklaus Classic Golf Resort (now CGCC) for nine years and then as General Manager of Boulder Hills Golf and Country Club in Hyderabad for four years. He later became the Golf Director at RCGC in Kolkata. Since 2008, John has been actively involved in junior golf, from the Albatross Junior Tour to the Ace Golf Junior Tour. He also played a key role in establishing the golf programs at Imperial Golf Estate in Ludhiana.

Brijesh Yadav is a Class 'C' certified Golf Teaching Professional, accredited by the National Golf Academy of India through a program supported by the Royal & Ancient St. Andrews and the PGA of Europe. With over 21 years in the golf industry, Brijesh began as a junior golfer, progressed through the amateur ranks, competed on the PGTI and professional circuits, and eventually transitioned into teaching. At Hamoni Golf Camp, he specialized in club fitting and repair while training to become a teaching professional, crediting Hamoni for their encouragement and support. He is passionate about sharing his love for the game and aims to contribute to transforming the golf landscape in India.

Rahul Singh Pathania is a distinguished Class 'C' certified Golf Teaching Professional, accredited by the National Golf Academy of India through a program supported by the Royal & Ancient St. Andrews and the PGA of Europe. As a seasoned golf instructor, Rahul possesses extensive expertise in coaching individuals of all ages and skill levels, fostering a love for the game. His dedication is exemplified by his role at Hamoni Golf Camp, where he is committed to imparting knowledge and cultivating a community of golf enthusiasts. Additionally, he efficiently managed course operations at Glade One Golf Resort in Ahmedabad. This dual responsibility underscores his holistic understanding of the sport, ensuring a seamless blend of coaching excellence and operational finesse.

Astha Madan, a professional golfer and PGA trainee, turned professional in 2018 after earning her full tour card on the Ladies European Tour (2019-2021). She currently competes on the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour in India and the Ladies European Tour Access Series. Astha has represented India in numerous international tournaments, including the Asian Games, World Amateur Championship, and Callaway World Juniors. She received a full scholarship to compete at the NCAA D1 level at California State University, Sacramento. Pursuing to become a PGA Certified Professional, Astha's coaching philosophy is holistic, blending her diverse golf background and education to impart comprehensive knowledge and a deep passion for the sport.
